Bodleian Libraries Welcome/Induction for UGs & VSs

Libraries will play a big part during your time at Oxford, whether providing access to online articles on your reading list or helping you find that elusive book. The Bodleian Libraries is the library service supporting the University and can help you get the most out of your course.

A short 30-minute webinar has been scheduled into your timetable to introduce you to the Bodleian Libraries and how they can help you. This will take place via Microsoft Teams. There is no need to register; just click the link below. If you have any accessibility requirements you would like to declare, please contact usered@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Please make sure you attend the Library introduction session on Wednesday, 7 October, unless you have a meeting with your Tutor, in which case you should attend one of the other sessions.

You must attend a Bodleian Libraries induction webinar as the induction will help you to:

- Track down the books and articles that you need for your academic work
- Access Oxford's extensive online collections: many of the materials are not publicly available on the WWW!
- Find out about ordering materials from the closed book stacks, reserving and borrowing items
- Familiarise yourself with Library services and facilities such as computing, photocopying and scanning
- Find out how to get help

You can also find out about using Oxford Libraries by visiting 'Library Assistant for Oxford Freshers' at http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/assistant
